1. The Agreement between Us

1.1. The Agreement between Us (This "Agreement") Comprises:

- the terms and matters set out in the Account Opening Application Form and any sub mandates;

1.1.1. This Agreement represents all the terms agreed between us regarding the Services unless we have agreed in writing to supplement or vary this Agreement.

1.1.2. Unless otherwise agreed with you in writing, we are treating you as a professional client for the purposes of the rules of the Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA"). You agree that you are responsible for keeping us informed about any change to your circumstances as this could affect our categorisation of you.

1.1.3. The main account and any sub-accounts, including funds held in a wallet including accounts held in joint ownership constitute a single contractual agreement and are treated as one account for the purpose of realized client balances. This means that all account opening conditions, agreements and provisions between us with regards to the main account are equally valid and applicable to all accounts held by you individually and jointly, and any realized negative balances may be netted against other accounts held in your name. Any account unrealized balances, positions, or margin requirements will not be netted against each other unless otherwise agreed in writing by both parties.

1.2. Effective Date

1.2.1. This Agreement shall come into force on the earlier of the date you complete and sign the Account Opening Application Form and the date you begin to use the Services (being a day we are open for business or the next business day if we are not, a "Business Day"). Our obligations under this Agreement in relation to our Services shall become effective on the Business Day we confirm your account has been approved for funding.

1.3. Cancellation Rights

1.3.1. You have a right to cancel this Agreement within 14 days of the Business Day we receive the completed Account Opening Application Form from you. If you would like to cancel this Agreement please let your contact at Hantec Markets

1.3.2. If you do not exercise this right to cancel within the requisite time period, you will still be entitled to exercise your right under Section 2.32.1.1 of the Agreement to terminate the Agreement.

1.3.3. You must note that the right to cancel and the right to terminate under the Agreement only relate to cancelling or terminating the Agreement. Cancellation or termination will not affect the completion of transactions initiated prior to us receiving your notice of cancellation or termination. Cancellation or termination will not affect your or our accrued rights, indemnities, existing commitments or any other contractual provision intended to survive termination of this Agreement.

1.3.4. No penalty will apply on cancellation, however, you will pay our fees on a pro-rata basis to the date of cancellation and any additional expenses necessarily incurred by us (or a third party) in cancelling this Agreement and any losses necessarily realised in settling or concluding outstanding transactions and transferring your funds back to you.

1.3.5. You should note that we will provide the Services to you until we receive notice of cancellation pursuant to your cancellation right and if you do cancel the amount you receive back may be less than your initial investment due to fluctuating market values, payment of any fees due to us, costs we incur and any costs incurred by us due to circumstances outside our control.

2. Terms and Conditions that apply to the Services

2.1. Hantec Markets Limited

Hantec Markets Limited is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority of 12 Endeavour Square, London E20 1JN. We are entered on the FCA Register and our firm reference number is 502635. Our authorisation includes the provision of arranging deals in investments and non-advised dealing services and such services comprise our main business activities.

Our principal place of business is 5-6 Newbury Street, London EC1A 7HU (we will notify you of any change to our principal place of business) our telephone number is 020 7036 0888 and our email address is info-uk@hmarkets.com.

2.2. Non-advised Dealing Services

2.2.1. We offer "non-advised dealing services" which means allowing you access to speculate on the financial markets using our Online Platform. You agree to use our services as a derivative or leveraged product.

2.2.2. Any instructions you give us in relation to non-advised dealing services must be given by you through our online foreign exchange, bullion and CFD transaction systems (the "Online Platform") unless we agree otherwise.

2.2.3. We will provide you with prices at which the relevant currency, bullion or CFD can be purchased or sold either verbally or via the Online Platform.

2.2.4. You are required to settle each transaction on the date agreed with us for the settlement or if there is no such date, then the second business day after the execution of an order by us or on such other date as we may determine (the "Value Date").

2.3. Appropriateness

2.3.1. For certain types of investment (considered by the FCA to be complex investments), when we receive instructions to deal on a non-advised basis we are required under the FCA rules to determine whether you have the necessary experience and knowledge in order to understand the risks involved in relation to the product or investment service offered or demanded when assessing whether an investment service is appropriate for you.

Where such an appropriateness assessment requirement applies in respect of you, we may assume that as a professional client, you have the necessary experience and knowledge in order to understand the risks involved in relation to those particular investment services or transactions, or types of transaction or product, for which you are classified as a professional client.

2.4. Confirmations

2.4.1. When we deal for you on a non-advised basis we will provide you with a notice in electronic form confirming the execution of your order and providing you with details of the transaction (such as the price and any rate of exchange used for a currency conversion). You should check the confirmation carefully and let us know immediately of any errors. Unless you let us know within 24 hours that there is an error in the confirmation we send you it will be deemed to be binding on you (in the absence of manifest error).

2.5. Best Execution

2.5.1. When we execute an order on your behalf the FCA rules require us to take all sufficient steps to obtain the best possible result for you, taking into account a number of relevant factors. In order to comply with our obligations in relation to best execution we have in place an order execution policy which is available on our website. Our order execution policy is reviewed periodically. By entering into this Agreement you confirm that you agree to this policy. We may amend our Order Execution Policy from time to time and may notify you of any material amendments by giving written notice.

As a professional client, when providing you with best execution we are not obliged to prioritise the overall costs of the transaction as being the most important factor in achieving best execution for you, nor do we have to consider our own commissions and costs relating to each of the eligible execution venues available when assessing which to use in order to provide best execution.

2.5.2. Please note that specific instructions from you in relation to the execution of orders may prevent us from following our order execution policy in respect of the elements of execution covered by the specific instruction.

2.5.3. When we enter into transactions on your behalf denominated in a foreign currency other than the base currency of your account (as such base currency is provided for in the Account Opening Application Form) we may carry out any necessary foreign exchange transactions (together with any hedging transactions on a transaction by transaction basis) on the settlement date for the transaction rather than the trade date at our then prevailing rates of exchange.

2.5.4. Payments into your account may, where necessary, be converted into the base currency of your account.

2.6. Capacity

2.6.1. Unless we agree otherwise at the time of dealing, we will be the counterparty to all your transactions and act as a principal and not as agent on your behalf. Unless we agree otherwise, we will treat you alone as our client for all purposes and you shall be directly and fully responsible for performing the obligations under each transaction we enter in with you or on your behalf. We do not have nor do we seek to have any relationship with any third party on whose behalf it may be claimed you are acting.

2.7. Use of Our Online Platform

2.7.1. You will be able to enter orders at the exchange rates and prices displayed on the Online Platform.

2.7.2. The ownership of materials and text contained on our website, accessed from it, or otherwise distributed to you by us, is confidential and protected by copyright. You agree that this material and text is for your own personal use and that you will not disclose it to anyone else. All electronic communications between parties in the course of business may be recorded and monitored by us in accordance with relevant law and for the purposes set out in the Privacy Notice.

2.7.3. We will notify you of your Online Platform account password by phone, letter or email. Your personal information will be requested as a means to verify your identity before the password is released over the telephone. Your password is strictly confidential and you agree to take full responsibility for all transactions, loss, costs and expenses, should any transaction be accepted and concluded by us after the password has been provided to you.

2.7.4. You agree that by using the Online Platform you have given your prior express consent to receive and transmit instructions for execution outside a regulated market or multilateral trading facility.

2.7.5. You will provide us with a list of people authorised to access the Online Platform on your behalf (each an "Authorised User"). You shall notify us immediately when any new person becomes an Authorised User or when any existing Authorised User is no longer entitled to be an Authorised User. Upon receipt of such notice, the change in Authorised User is effective immediately (or on such date as specified in the notice). However such notice shall not affect any instructions already executed prior to receipt of such notice. All instructions given and accepted by an Authorised User will be deemed to be instructions authorised by you and shall be binding on you.

2.7.6. You must ensure that each Authorised User quits and closes the internet browser after using the Online Platform.

2.7.7. You will advise us immediately if you have any reason to believe that your login and password have not been kept secure and confidential or may otherwise have become known to others.

2.7.8. We may at any time without notice to you suspend, withdraw or deny access to the Online Platform for any reason including but not limited to security, quality of service, failure by you to pay an amount when due or breach by you of any provision of this Agreement.

2.7.9. You acknowledge that if, in our sole discretion, we consider you to have partaken in any kind or form of scalping, market abuse, or any other unethical trading, we reserve the right, unilaterally and with immediate effect, to suspend or terminate (at any time, with or without cause or prior notice) all or any part of any Services, or your access; to change the nature, composition or availability of any electronic trading or service on the Online Platform. This includes changing the limits we set on any trading you may conduct through the Online Platform.

2.8. Transmission of Orders

2.8.1. Unless otherwise agreed by us, all orders to trade must be transmitted to us through the Online Platform. Such an order shall not take effect unless actually received by us.

2.8.2. We will endeavour to advise you promptly if such circumstances arise, however we are under no obligation to provide you with our reasons for not acting on your orders. We will not be liable to you in any way if we refuse to follow your orders.

2.8.3. If there has been no activity for more than six months on any account in your name, we reserve the right to cancel any pending opening orders without prior notice.

2.9. Orders Binding

2.9.1. When you click the submit button to enter an order through our Online Platform (or give us an order by any other means we may agree) we will be under no obligation to accept it or, if accepted, under no obligation to execute it. Unexecuted orders may be cancelled at our discretion. Once an order has been entered into our Online Platform it may not be altered or cancelled.

2.10. Margin Deposit

2.10.1. Before executing any order, we may in our absolute discretion require a deposit of such amount as we may specify in respect of any actual, anticipated or contingent liability you may have to us in respect of anticipated or existing open positions which you have or will have with us (the “Margin Deposit”).

2.10.2. We reserve the right to change the margin requirements at any time and any change may become effective immediately. We may inform you of this by email, via the electronic trading platform, telephone call, post, text message, or by posting notice of the change on our website. It is your responsibility to know at all times the current margin requirement applicable to your account and your open positions.

2.11. Limitations of Online Platform

Due to limitations of an Online platform, where it is possible for a market to go negative, we reserve the right to close any open positions and/or settle the market at a pre-determined level in the positive, or at the best attainable price, which could also be negative;

2.12. Liquidity

We may, where and to the extent permitted under applicable laws and regulations, take one or more of the following steps in order to protect you:

cease or suspend trading and/or refuse to enter into any trades or accept any orders;

- make changes to our normal trading times for all or any markets;
- make changes to our pricing and our spreads;
- change the stop out level applicable to your account;
- close any open positions, cancel and/or fill any orders, and or make changes to the pricing and/or limit the quantity of any trade, open positions and orders;
- take or omit to take all such other actions as we consider to be reasonable in the circumstances to protect ourselves and our clients as a whole

We will take reasonable steps to notify you of any action we may take before we take any action to the extent practicable. If it is not practicable to give you a prior notice, we will notify you at the time or promptly after taking any such action.

We will not be liable to you for any loss or damage arising under Terms 2.11. and 2.12. of this Agreement, provided we act reasonably.

2.13. Cleared Funds

2.13.1. You must at all times have sufficient cleared funds with us before we will execute any order. We will indicate to you the sum required as the Margin Deposit for each order.

2.13.2. We will only accept funds from you where they are from an account held in your name, either jointly or individually, the payment has originated from you and we reserve the right to verify the bank account if the payment is made by bank transfer.

2.13.3. If your Account has a negative cash value for any reason, including but not limited to, the closure of your positions under term 2.16, or termination of this agreement, that negative cash value represents a debt owed to us which is due and payable immediately.

2.14. Profits, Losses and Interest Charges on Open Positions

2.14.1. For any open position held by you, we shall from time to time credit your account with profits and interest earned, or debit your account for losses and interest incurred from the date agreed with us until the Value Date (as defined in Term 2.2.4. above) or until the position is closed or liquidated, in the following manner:

- for buying of one currency against the sale of another currency and the currency bought has a higher interest rate than the currency sold, interest arising therefrom shall be credited to your account;
- for bullion contracts, interest arising from buying or selling bullion shall be credited or debited to your account;
- in the case of a negative interest rate, interest arising therefrom shall be debited to your account;
- the case of CFDs, we will charge an interest rate in respect of each [long (or bought)] open position and:
- in the case of long (or bought) positions we will settle the difference between the price or level at which we entered into the transaction with you and the price or level of the subject matter (or underlying) on the Value Date, if it is higher we will pay the difference to you but if it is lower you will pay the difference to us;
- in the case of short (or sold) positions we will settle the difference between the price or level at which we entered into the transaction with you and the price or level of the subject matter (or underlying) on the Value Date, if it is lower we will pay the difference to you but if it is higher you will pay the difference to us.

2.14.2. In all cases, interest shall be at the rate we determine from time to time and published on our website.

2.14.3. We reserve the right not to notify you when there is a movement of 10% or over in any position held on your account, and will not be held liable for any loss on the account should you rely on this notification.

2.14.4 Corporate Actions

Should any underlying instrument become subject to a Corporate Action, we reserve the right to make the appropriate adjustments, if any to be made, to the size and/or value and/or number of related position(s) (and/or to the level of any order) to any of your accounts, which may include, but are not limited to:

- opening of a new position or closing any existing positions on your account
- changing Margin Factors, Margin Multipliers and/or the minimum level of stop loss orders both in relation to open positions and new trades;
- making a reasonable and fair retrospective adjustment to the opening price of any open position, to reflect the impact of the relevant action or event;
- cancelling any orders;
- suspending or modifying the application of any part of the Agreement;
- crediting or debiting sums to your account as appropriate; and/or
- taking all such other action, as we reasonably consider appropriate to reflect the effect of the relevant action or event.

2.14.5. Where applicable, a dividend adjustment will be calculated for your account in respect of any open positions held on the ex-dividend day for the relevant underlying instrument. For long positions, the dividend adjustment will generally be a cash adjustment reflecting the amount of the net dividend receivable. For short positions, the dividend adjustment will generally be a cash adjustment reflecting the net dividend payable.

2.14.6. We shall use best endeavours to take any such actions as soon as we are reasonably able to do so and this will normally be as soon as is reasonably practicable after the relevant event has occurred. Any action taken by us will be effective from the date determined by us and may, for the avoidance of doubt, be retrospective. If we do so, we shall give you notice at the time we take the action or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter.

2.15. Advances and Interest Rate

2.15.1. If you are not able or not willing to settle any transaction on the Value Date or on such date as we shall require settlement, we may (but without obligation to do so) make an advance to you of such amount as is necessary for direct settlement of any transaction in whole or in part and you undertake to repay the US dollar equivalent (at the exchange rate or rates as we shall stipulate) upon demand with interest therein at the rate of 3% per annum above the prime lending rate in the United States for the time being in force, calculated on a daily basis from the date of such advance up to and including the date of repayment in full. Interest at the above rate shall be chargeable on the following items:

- Any part of the Margin Deposit or additional Margin Deposit not paid or deposited in the form of cash; and
- Any amount due to us which remains outstanding.

2.15.2. This Term (2.15) shall not be construed as binding us to make any advance to you nor shall it prejudice any of the rights and remedies we have against you or any other persons under this Agreement or otherwise conferred by law.

2.15.3. We may, but have no obligation to, grant you a waived margin limit in an agreed currency that can be offset against a negative mark to market value on an open position, or an amount applicable to unsettled trading losses to some or all trades (either individually or in aggregate or both).

2.15.4. If the negative mark to market of an open position is approaching or has exceeded your waived margin limit, we reserve the right to require you to pay an amount in addition to the Margin Deposit in our absolute discretion. Any waived margin limit we set may be reduced or withdrawn at any time by giving you notice in writing.

2.15.5. If we act on an instruction which would result in a waived margin limit being exceeded:

- we are not obliged to advise you of this;
- you will be liable to us for all amounts due to us including those above any waived margin limit;
- we are not obliged to act upon any subsequent instruction where a waived margin limit may be exceeded.

2.16. Forced Liquidation

2.16.1. You are required to maintain a sufficient level of Margin Deposit. We reserve our right to close out all open positions:

- if at any time the Margin Deposit held by us is approaching or is no longer sufficient to cover the negative mark to market value of any or all open positions that you have with us; or
- if at any time the waived margin limit assigned to you is no longer sufficient to cover the negative mark to market value of any or all open positions that you have open with us.

2.16.2. If you fail to provide sufficient funds to hold your open positions in your trading account, they may be closed without further reference to you when the sum of funds in your trading account and the unrealised net profits of all open positions connected to that account falls to less than half of the total initial margin protection for all those open positions.

2.16.3. We shall have the right, in our absolute discretion, to determine the mark to market value from time to time. In addition to other remedies available to us, if you fail to pay an amount when due under this Agreement, we have the right to close (by either buying or selling) any or all of your open positions.

2.16.4. We are not obliged to contact you before we take the relevant action under Term 2.16.1. If however we do so, the margin call may be made by email, via the electronic trading platform, telephone call, post or text message. The margin call will be deemed to have been received if we have left a message requesting you to contact us, or if we have been unable to leave a message but made reasonable endeavours to do so.

2.16.5 Each sub account is subject to separate margin requirement. No margin can be transferred from accounts/sub accounts with excess margin to these accounts/sub accounts that require margin. This is referred to as cross-margining, which is not permissible with HML.

2.17. Quoting Error

2.17.1. We will use all reasonable endeavours to provide up-to-date quotes for all Services traded on or through our Online Platform however we give no assurance that the prices quoted are accurate.

2.17.2. In accordance with Term 27.1 in this Section 2, should a quoting error occur due to a typographical error or other obvious mistake in a quote or indication (the "Quoting Error"), we are not liable for any damages, claims, losses, liabilities or costs arising from the Quoting Error. We reserve the right to make the necessary adjustments to correct the Quoting Error and close any position opened on the basis of a Quoting Error. Any dispute arising from a Quoting Error will be resolved on the basis of the fair market value, as determined by us acting reasonably, of the relevant currency at the time such Quoting Error occurred.

2.18. Authorisation Limits

2.18.1. You may notify us of an authorisation limit applicable to some or all trades either in general or for particular Authorised Users. You may withdraw any such authorisation limit at any time by giving us notice in writing. We may, in our absolute discretion, impose an authorisation limit on you and/or any Authorised Users or vary any such limit at any time by giving you notice in writing in accordance with Term 25 of this Section 2.

2.19. Material Interests and Conflicts

2.19.1. As part of an international organisation which provides a number of services to a range of clients, there may be times when there is a conflict between our interests, or the interest of an Associated Company or Individual and the duty we owe to you or any other client, or a conflict between the differing interests of two or more clients to whom in each case we owe a duty. Under the FCA rules we are required to have in place arrangements with a view to taking all sufficient steps to prevent or mitigate such conflicts of interest constituting or giving rise to a material risk of damage to the interests of our clients. We have established a comprehensive Conflicts of Interest Policy to identify and manage such actual or potential conflicts of interest. Where we do not consider that the arrangements under our conflicts of interest policy are sufficient to manage a particular conflict, we will inform you of the nature and/or source of the conflict. Our full Conflicts of Interest Policy is available on our website.

2.20. Client Money

2.20.1. All amounts held in your account will be received and held by us as client money and segregated ("Segregated Funds") by us in accordance with the FCA rules. Unless you have notified us in writing to the contrary, we may hold Segregated Funds in a segregated account located outside the UK or pass money held on your behalf to an intermediate broker, settlement agent or counterparty located outside the UK. The legal and regulatory regime applying to any such person may be different from that of the UK and in the event of the insolvency or any equivalent failure of that person, your money may be treated differently from the treatment which would apply if the money was held in a segregated account in the UK.

2.20.2. You agree that in the event that there has been no movement on your account for a period of at least six years (notwithstanding any payments or receipts of charges, interest or similar items) and/or we are unable to trace you despite having taken reasonable steps to do so, we may cease to treat your money as client money and pay away the money to a registered charity. In such circumstances, we will unconditionally undertake to pay you a sum equal to the relevant client money balance paid away in the event that you seek to claim the client money balance in the future.

2.21. Privacy and Data Protection

2.21.1. You agree that by opening an account with us and using our Services, you will be providing us with personal data within the meaning of the General Data Protection Regulation (679/2016).

2.21.2. When you provide your personal data on the Account Opening Application Form or otherwise, you confirm that it is accurate, complete and up-to-date. You agree to us processing all such personal data to perform the Agreement and administer your account and the relationship between us. You agree to our processing and disclosing your personal data for the purposes set out in the Privacy Notice as published on our website and in accordance with this Agreement, as may be updated from time to time.

2.21.3. You authorise us to carry out identity and credit checks, and related actions which we consider appropriate to meet any legal obligations imposed on us relating to, or to pursue our legitimate interests.

2.21.4 You agree that, as part of the processing necessary for the purposes set out in the Privacy Notice, your personal data can be legitimately disclosed to other recipients and public authorities in accordance with a legal obligation for the exercise of their official mission and who may be within or outside the European Economic Area. This may involve the disclosure of information concerning you or your account, as part of the automatic exchange of information under FATCA, CRS and other fiscal reporting regimes.

2.22. Intellectual Property

2.22.1. You agree that we are the sole owner (except to the extent owned by any third party licensors and except to the extent licensed by any of our Associated Companies) of all right, title and interest in the Online Platform and any information or data generated by the Online Platform.

2.22.2. At no time shall you enter into commitments for us or in our name or use our intellectual property for any purpose whatsoever. You will not use our name or intellectual property without our prior written approval nor will you represent yourself as being affiliated with, or authorised to act for us.

2.23. Complaints and Disputes

2.23.1. If you have a complaint in respect of our Services you can in the first instance contact HML Client Support Staff who will be available during market hours. If the complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction, you can write to the HML Compliance Department. Details of our internal Complaints Policy are available on our website.

If you are dissatisfied with the result of our complaints procedure, in some instances, as a professional client you may be able to complain directly to the Financial Ombudsman Service. The Financial Ombudsman's Service can be contacted by telephone on 0800 023 4567 or you can find further details on their website:

www.financialombudsman.org.uk/consumer/complaints.htm

2.24. Compensation

2.24.1. We are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme ("FSCS"). If we are unable to meet our liabilities in respect of investment business, if you make a valid claim you may be entitled to redress from the FSCS in respect of the investments that we arrange. This depends on the type of business and circumstances of the claim. Further information is available from us or from the Financial Services Compensation Scheme website www.fscs.org.uk.

2.25.3. Email Communications

You agree that we may communicate with you by email and (subject to Term 9 of this Section 2) act on instructions received via email from you. You acknowledge and accept the risks inherent in email, particularly of its unauthorised interception and of its not reaching the intended recipient. Please notify us in writing if you do not consent to the use of email as a means of communication in relation to this Agreement and its subject matter. For the avoidance of doubt, please note that we will not accept trade instructions to either open new positions, or close existing positions via email, unless you receive confirmation from us to do so.

2.25.4. Communication to Us by Your Nominated Third party

If you authorise us to accept the instructions of a nominated third party we will do so until we receive notice to the contrary from you. The same rules apply to face to face, written, telephoned or emailed instructions received from a third party as they do to instructions received from you and you must ensure that your nominated third party complies with these rules.

2.25.5. Communications by us to you

We will write to, telephone or email you and/or, as appropriate, a third party authorised by you, at the address(es) and the other contact details as set out in the Account Opening Application Form or any other address(es) and other contact details you notify to us in writing. To help us administer your account properly our representatives or employees may occasionally call you on the telephone or visit you without clearing this with you first.

2.25.6. Apparent Instructions

As long as we act reasonably, you authorise us to rely on instructions by whatever means transmitted which appear or purport to be sent by you or a third party authorised by you.

2.25.7. Receipt of Instructions and Notices

If an instruction or notice from you is received by us outside business hours (meaning 9.00 am to 5.00 pm Monday to Friday on a day that is not a public holiday in England), the instruction or notice is deemed to have been received by us on the next business day following receipt.

2.26.3. Your Investments

The lien or security interest will apply in respect of each asset or type of asset or class of asset comprised within your account from time to time to the extent of your indebtedness to us.

In the event of default or late payment of any sum due to us we reserve the right to charge interest at a rate not exceeding the effective cost to us of borrowing in the relevant money markets an amount equal to the sums due or such other rate as we may have notified to you.

Where we are required by law to provide information to a tax authority this provision of information will be governed by our Privacy Notice. You agree that if we provide you with any information or express any opinion in relation to the tax treatment of the Services you used or continue to use it will not be reasonable for you to rely upon any such statement and it will not constitute tax advice.

2.29.7. Inactivity Fees

If there has been no activity on all accounts in your name, you will be charged a monthly inactivity fee of £5/€5/$5 or equivalent account currency. Inactivity is defined as no deposits and withdrawals, no open trades, or any other trading activity on your accounts for more than six months.

Any balance left on such trading accounts will be transferred to the Wallet and accounts will become dormant. The fee will be charged every month after this time if there continues to be no activity on the accounts. To avoid being charged an inactivity fee, you should have executed at least one trade, or made a deposit or withdrawal to or from your account(s) in the previous 6-month period. If you have unrealised trades that have remained open for longer than the 6-month period but have not executed any further trades, your account will not be deemed inactive.

If your Wallet balance is zero or the inactivity fee will bring the balance of your Wallet account to zero or negative, Hantec Markets will charge such part of the fee that brings the balance to zero and then close that account as per Term 2.32.1.2. We reserve the right to change this fee at immediate notice and may inform you of this by email, via the electronic trading platform, telephone call, post, text message, or by posting notice of the change on our website.

In the event that trading accounts should go dormant, such accounts will become inaccessible. Subject to applicable regulations and the dormancy time, access to your trading accounts may be restored. To submit a trading account reactivation request, please contact us at info-uk@hmarkets.com.

2.29.8. Islamic/Swap Free Account Charges

Islamic/Swap Free accounts subject to Islamic Forex Account Term and Conditions are liable to a holding fee, which can be found on Hantec Markets' website, for any position which is held for the period of a week or more.

2.29.9 Currency Conversion

If you place a trade on your account in a currency other than the account base currency, it will be automatically converted to that account base currency at the prevailing market rate available at that moment and a standard currency conversion fee of 0.6% will be charged. Your account will, by default, be set to immediate conversion of non-base currency balances standing on your account to your base currency. This means that following a trade in a non-base currency being closed, rolled over or expiring, the profits or losses from that trade will be automatically converted to your base currency and posted to your account in that base currency. All conversions made in accordance with this term will be made at the prevailing market rate at the time of the conversion. It is your responsibility to make yourself aware of the currency that is designated as your base currency and the currencies in which various trades are denominated. Details of your account base currency can be checked on the client portal or on your MT4/MT5 trading account.

2.30. Scalping

In any circumstances where we reasonably suspect that you performed abusive trading such as scalping, this will be considered as a breach of this Agreement and for this reason we reserve the right to take any of the following actions in relation to the scalping activity:

- Immediately terminate your account and your access to our servers;
- Void any trade (i.e., treat the trade as if the trade had never taken place) which was part of any scalping activity;
- Close any trade, which was part of any scalping activity, on the basis of our current market price;
- Make immediate changes to your account, including but not limited to, the liquidity provided by us and the spread quoted.

We can exercise the above rights even if you have entered into (or refrained from entering into) such arrangements with third parties relating to the relevant trade and even if you may suffer a trading loss as a result.

2.31 Market Abuse

2.31.1 We may hedge our liability to you by opening matching positions with liquidity providers. The result of us doing this is that when you open or close a trade relating to an equity or other instrument with us, your trades can, through our hedging, exert a distorting influence on the underlying market for that instrument. This creates a possibility of market abuse, and the purpose of this term is to prevent such abuse.

2.31.2 You agree that when you open or close a trade, that:

- you will not open and have not opened a trade or trades with us relating to a particular share price if to do so would result in you, or others with whom you are acting in concert together, having an exposure to the share price that is equal to or exceeds the amount of a declarable interest in the relevant company. For this purpose, the level of a declarable interest will be the prevailing level at the material time, set by law or by the exchange(s) on which the underlying equity is listed;
- you will not open and have not opened a trade with us in connection with:
 - (iv) a placing, issue, distribution or other akin event;
 - (v) an offer, take-over, merger or other akin event; or
 - (vi) any other corporate finance style activity, in which you are involved or otherwise interested; and
- you will not open or close a trade and you will not place an order that contravenes any primary or secondary legislation or other law against insider dealing or market manipulation. For the purposes of this Term you agree that we may proceed on the basis that when you open or close a trade or place an order with us on an equity price, you may be treated as dealing in securities within the meaning of Part V of the Criminal Justice Act 1993.

2.31.3. In the event that

- you open or close any trade or place an order in breach of the agreed in Terms 2.7.4 -2.7.7, 2.7.9, 2.21.2, 2.26.2 or 2.31.2, or
- we have reasonable grounds for suspecting that you have done so, we may, at our absolute discretion and without being under any obligation to inform you of our reason for doing so, close that trade and any other trades that you may have open at the time, if applicable, and also, at our absolute discretion:
 - enforce the trade or trades against you if it is a trade or trades under which you have incurred a loss;
 - treat all your trades that meet the circumstances set out in this Term as void if they are trades under which you have secured a profit, unless and until you produce evidence that satisfies us that you have not, in fact, committed misrepresentation, the suspicion of which was the ground for us taking action under this Term. For the avoidance of doubt, if you do not produce such evidence within the period of three months from the date on which action is taken by us under this Term, all such Transactions between you and HML will be finally null and void; or
 - cancel any order on your account with us.

2.31.4. You acknowledge that the trades in which you deal with us are speculative instruments and you agree that you will not open any trades with us in connection with any corporate finance style activity.

Within two days of termination of this Agreement, you will return or destroy all passwords and log-in information received from us in accordance with our written instructions.

Termination of this Agreement is without prejudice to the accrued rights and liabilities of the parties except in the case of termination under Term 32.1.3 which shall relieve us of any obligations set out in this Agreement or arising out of transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including any obligations arising out of any transaction already entered into with us.

2.33.4. Rights and Remedies

The rights and remedies provided in this Agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

Neither the failure nor delay on our part in exercising any right or remedy under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right or remedy preclude us from any other or further waiver of any right or remedy.

2.33.5. Severance

If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of this Agreement (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected.

4. Warning: Risks of Margin Trading

Although we will not be required to provide you with the written risk warnings and notices required for retail clients in relation to transactions in complex financial instruments, you should consider the following risks before trading through our Services.

Trading in derivatives, particularly margin trading, involves the potential for profit as well as the risk of loss. This may vastly exceed the amount of money you commit to any trade or transaction. Movements in the price of financial markets are influenced by a variety of factors of global origin, many of which are unpredictable. Violent movements in the price of foreign exchange, bullion rates, CFDs and spreadbets may result in action by the market. As a result you may be unable to settle adverse trades. HML staff are unable to guarantee a maximum loss that you may suffer.

You may be required to deposit substantial additional margin, at short notice, to hold your positions. If you fail to provide funds to hold your positions they may be closed without further reference to you.

Movement in the price of foreign exchange, bullion rates and CFDs are influenced by a variety of factors of global origin many of which are unpredictable. Price movements of derivative contracts are influenced by interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments, and national and international political and economic events and policies. In addition, governments intervene from time to time, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly markets in currencies and interest rate related contracts and derivatives. Such intervention is often intended to influence prices and may, together with other factors, cause all of such markets to move rapidly in the same direction because of, among other things, interest rate fluctuations.

Violent movements in the price of foreign exchange, bullion rates and CFDs may result in action by the market as a result of which you may be unable to settle adverse trades.

Certain investment strategies or hedging techniques, including those involving 'spread' positions or 'straddles', may be as risky as taking simple 'long' or 'short' positions.

Although derivatives can be used for the management of investment risk, some of these products are unsuitable for many investors. Different instruments involve different levels of exposure to risk and in deciding whether to trade in such instruments you should be aware of the issues set out in this risk warning. However, this risk warning cannot disclose all of the risks and other significant aspects of such derivatives. You should not deal in derivatives unless you understand their nature and the full extent of your exposure to risk and losses.

If there is anything you do not understand it is recommended that you seek appropriate advice from a suitably qualified person (such as a lawyer, accountant or financial adviser). You should therefore carefully consider whether such trading is suitable in light of your own financial position and investment objectives.
